YOU'RE INVITED!

TO WOOD BADGE BSA ADULT LEADERSHIP TRAINING

Wood Badge is a powerful, six-day experience as a Boy Scout Troop modeling leadership skills and best practices with an energizing vision of Scouting.

Utilizing materials drawn from the work of Kenneth Blanchard, Stephen R. Covey, Robert K. Greenleaf, and other recognized experts on leadership and training, participants are provided an opportunity to learn and apply a variety of leadership skills.

Many organizations count Wood Badge toward Continuing Education credits.

These are some of the topics covered:

- The stages of team development
- Listening to learn
- Communication skills
- Managing conflict
- Values, mission and vision
- Project planning, problem solving, and decision-making
- Leveraging diversity
- Coaching and mentoring
- Appropriate instructional styles
- Servant leadership
- Leading change in organizations
- Functioning in a multigenerational environment

WHAT IS IT?

Advanced adult leadership training!

WHAT IS TAUGHT?

Scouting principles and best practices coupled with the most current leadership models used by successful organizations throughout the country.

WHO SHOULD GO?

All registered adult leaders in all positions.

WHEN IS IT?

June 4-9, 2018 - or -
Sept. 13-15 & 20-22, 2018
